HOOSIERS
 USA, 1986. Directed by David Anspaugh. 114 min. G
 Hailed by Sports Illustrated and ESPN as one of the best sports movies of all time, this triumphant tale of a high school basketball team's long-shot attempt to win the state championship is filled with edge-of-your-seat suspense and breathless excitement!

KINGPIN
 USA, 1996. Directed by Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly. 113 min. PG
 Roy Munson (Woody Harrelson) is a young bowler with a promising career ahead of him until a disreputable colleague, Ernie McCracken (Bill Murray), tricks him into participating in a con game that ends with Roy's bowling hand crippled for life. Years later, Roy ekes out a hardscrabble existence until he discovers Amish bowling phenom Ishmael (Randy Quaid). With the help of a gangster's girlfriend (Vanessa Angel), he plots to take Ishmael to the top of the bowling world.

ROCKY
 USA, 1976. Directed by John G. Avildsen. 122 min. PG
 When Rocky, a low-budget film with an unknown actor named Sylvester Stallone, won the Academy Award for Best Picture, it was as emotional a finale as the film itself. A two-bit boxer gets a second chance in life by being offered an impossible shot at the heavyweight title. The story of how Rocky goes the distance is one of the warmest, most exciting, and stirring movies of all time.

WED 18 JULY (Rain date Wed 25 July)

LABYRINTH
 USA, 1986 Directed by Jim Henson. 101 min. G
 Babysitting infant stepbrother Toby on a weekend night isn't young Sarah's idea of fun. Frustrated by his crying, she secretly imagines the Goblins from her favorite book, LABYRINTH, carrying Toby away. When her fantasy comes true, a distraught Sarah must enter a maze of illusion to bring Toby back from a kingdom of mystical creatures and governed by the wicked Goblin King.

THE KARATE KID
 USA, 1984. Directed by John G. Avildsen. 126 min. PG
 Daniel moves to California with his mother and quickly finds himself the target of bullies who study karate at the Cobra Kai dojo. Fortunately, Daniel befriends Mr. Miyagi, an unassuming repairman who happens to be a martial arts master.

BATMAN
 USA, 1989. Directed by Tim Burton. 126 min. PG
 Bruce Wayne returns after several years' absence spent developing his physical and scientific skills. He finds his hometown has become highly corrupt. He then assumes a second identity – the powerful and terrifying crimefighter known as Batman. Starring Michael Keaton, Jack Nicholson and Kim Basinger.

WED 15 AUG (Rain date Wed 22 Aug)

DIRTY DANCING
 USA, 1987. Directed by Emile Ardolino. 100 min. 14A
 Baby (Jennifer Grey) is one listless summer away from the Peace Corps. Hoping to enjoy her youth while it lasts, she's disappointed when her summer plans deposit her at a sleepy resort in the Catskills with her parents. Her luck turns around, however, when the resort's dance instructor, Johnny (Patrick Swayze), enlists Baby as his new partner, and the two fall in love. Baby's father forbids her from seeing Johnny, but she's determined to help him perform the last big dance of the summer.

FOOTLOOSE
 USA, 1984. Directed by Dean Pitchford. 107 min. 14A
 An exuberant entertainment, bursting with music, romance and dance. A teenager from Chicago moves to a small town with repressive attitudes where they outlaw loud music and dance. Kevin Bacon rouses the youth of the town to confront the rampant prejudice and the music and dancing emerge with an impressive soundtrack.

THE FORBIDDEN DANCE
 USA, 1990. Directed by Greydon Clark. 97 min. G
 When the Brazilian rainforest home of young Princess Nisa (Laura Herring) is threatened by greedy American businesses, she travels to Los Angeles with Joa the shaman (Sid Haig). There Joa is thrown in jail, and Nisa must find a way to stop the rainforest destruction herself. When a young man who loves to dance crosses her path, and together they enter a televised lambada contest, Nisa might have found the answer to her prayers.
